at something in the sand. It was the | sired." profile of a young girl fashloned very "I hope it leaves a few things that eleverly out of the damp material. As are desired, else you would pay dearly she continued gazing it grew on her for my improvement, if it could be that the features were quite like her called that. But this morning walk does improve the appetite," she added

It was a mere coincidence, of course. She didn't know anybody in the place. finding all the company she needed in and his faces in the sand," observed Miss Cunningham. After their break- her companion. fast she would get her friend to walk that way and see how the sand image

The waves of the incoming tide were almost lapping it, but her companion caught sight of the alto rilievo mod- in, so that it would be washed out beeled from the unstable material and fore any one saw it." stopped to look at it more closely.

"Why, Margaret," she exclaimed aft- then?" cried Miss Cunningham. "Only That you deposit in the Savings your head. There! Now take off your hat. Yes! It is a fair likeness of you. Who in the world can have done it?" "It is enough of a likeness to merit this," returned the other, stamping the prised at her mitigated tone and her delicate profile into oblivion. "It is a face felt so red that she escaped to ests of every other depositor are family and further and to me new piece of impertinence!" In the sun parlor of the casino that had not gone for before she saw Mr. undivided profits of over which is a marked characteristic of afternoon she noticed a man regarding | Hammond sitting on a bench, gazing $9,000,000. her. There was a contented, well fed pensively at the sea. His tan shoes air about him which she did not like, were wet and sandy. In his fingers although he was a good looking man he clasped a pink carnation as if it gin an account, and five dollars der the edge of a rock with just enough in his heavy way. Earnest, practical were a precious relic. interest in the thin poor made her a dittle intolerant of sated idleness. At dinner that evening she caught his eye he did not perceive her. Then he pation was so great that for a moment upon her again as he passed her table. bounded to his feet, his face discount-She averted her face. Miss Hartwell ing the flower for color, and stam- your savings will grow. was a very pretty girl, but a fastidious mered: "Oh, Miss Hartwell! I was one, with no taste for a seaside flirta-

"That is Burlington, the sculptor," she heard a woman remark to her That face in the sand! Her face!

This was the man! Miss Hartwell got a note from her brother Tom that day saying he could not come before the end of the week. and let me explain?" he asked, his in-"You girls want a man to fetch and genuous eyes fastened on hers implorcarry for you. You mention half a doz- ingly. en women you have met and then com- She seated herself by his side. Judgplain that 'the place is restful, but a ing from a very pretty wedding in St. fittle dull.' Here's your chance. I George's three months later, Mr. Hamhear that Hammond, a Boston man, mond must have "explained" beauti classmate of mine at Yale, is at At- fully. lantic City. He is a good fellow-rich, family, brains but is shy of girls. I shall make him miserable by sending | One night as the Peasant was sound-

him a note of introduction to you and ly sleeping he was aroused by a knock Misa Cunningham." A day or two later the young fellow presented the note. He was a charming young man. From an act tern for a few minutes." quaintance he rapidly developed into "Hast lost something in the darkan acquisition. He was quiet and dig- ness?" was asked. nified, not shy. Miss Hartwell got to like him very well. "Tom is a good have come for thy Goat, but I require athlete, but not strong on analysis of a lantern to light up the stable."

character," she laughingly said to Miss "You shall have it with cheer, and Cunningham. Miss Hartwell had not encountered you go away." her face on the sand again and was The Peasant's wife began upbraiding reaping nothing but health and pleas- him that he should assist to steal his are from her vacation, especially since own property, but he turned to her and partment, $1.00 a year. young Hammond had become such an | commanded: interesting part of it. Then one morn- "Silence, woman! Firstly, I am no ing she came upon it again. As before, match for a thief who has doubtless Reading Room Free to All. it was early morning. She stamped come armed to attack or defend; sec-It out even moré emphatically.

Her brother arrived that day, and side by side, and did I not lend my she immediately confided to him how lantern the thief might get the Ass by much annoyance the sculptor was oc- mistake. I am not the fliest man in casioning her. Tom lost no time in the county, but I do know the differgetting after the man, who denied all ence between a three dollar Goat and a knowledge of the matter. thirty dollar Assi. "I came here for rest and amuse- Moral. The man who stops to figure ment, and the last thing I am likely to a little generally comes out ahead of do is to make fices in the sand. I | the game. work in more durable material." "But the liken as was unmistakable, and you are the only scalptor here."

"That may be. I had nothing to do speaking for myself, I believe in it," with it. My word should offset a mere remarked a ruddy faced old man in suspicion. I do not know your sister, the corner of a third class smoker. "It but if she is the young woman I think is only right to reward courtesy, and I you can assure her that I will not always make a point of giving the model her face in the sand," the man | guard of this train sixpence when be concluded sarenstically, comes to see if I'm all right, although Miss Hartwell was incredulous when I'm only a poor man." she heard her brother's report. "I don't The other passengers; not to be outlike the man's face," she said, That doesn't prove he did yours in ets, and when the guard popped his on approved principles. Perfect satisfaction spankers?" the sand, Maggie," returned her broth- head inside the door a few minutes guaranteed. Borses called for and brought er reproachfully. "I gather from his later he found himself overwhelmed home with care. remarks that he doesn't like your with silver coins. An hour passed, and the passengers Miss Hartwell fossed her head. Tom | got out one by one until the old man was so early going. She might catch | was left facing a spruce commercial this man at his work. Then she knew | traveler, who leaned toward him conshe could court on Tom. She strolled | fidentially and asked him how he could along the board walk, occasionally ap afford to give the guard sixpence every proaching the rall and looking down on time he took a journey. the two h, for the next two or three, "Oh, don't worry yourself about mornings early. But she saw no one. that" responded the old man. "I dare Perhaps he had been frightened off, say I shall not it back with interest." If the could only catch bin! . "How will you?"

With Interest.

"Yes, I know that certain passen

The next marning she did. There, "The gnard is a son of mine?"-Loncrouched down on the sand, working in | don Globe. it, so absorbed that he never glanced around, was a man. He and she were Life's Little Ironies. almost the sole persons abroad at that | Doctor-I'm very glad to tell you Mrs. Hodges, that your busband will She recognized the clandestine mod- recover after all.

eler beyond the shadow of a doubt. But | Mrs. Hodges - Lord, sir, don't say instead of getting her brother and have that! fing him fall moon the delinquent red | Doctor-Why not, you unnatural wohanded she burried back to the hotel | man? and watched from behind the curtains Mrs. Hodges-Well, you see, sir, aft of her room until she saw the sand er I'd sent for you, sir, I took an' sold artist come up. Then she sallfed forth all his clo'es!-Sketch.

again, went down to the beach and rethan ever. He had actually put a sweet smile on the Mps! Suddenly she She stood motionless thinking very hard. Yes! Every time she had seep morning, when nobody was about a

"If it weren't for that horrid man

"Tom said he denied it in a way that

Besides, I have discovered that it was always done early, when no one was about and when the tide was coming ng," she replied laughingly.

will let me explain."

She nodded.

called a voice replied:

ter how early," she smiled faintly.

"And I may keep this little flower?"

"Will you sit down just for a minute

The Wise Peasant.

left no room to doubt his innocence.

the tide was coming in.

innocently.

the face on the sand it had been every Washington Life Insurance Building She turned, a smile on her face, re-

The Watch and Jeweiry House of the father of the present Benedict Bros. | rank. which makes it probably the oldest in No such restriction, however, was the benefit of all she got, and there her morning repast with keen enjoy. They have long desired to have larger honor on any of their subjects, kissed ment, "this place is doing you no end | and fire-proof quarters, and now hav- | either the mouths or the eyes of those At which stage of her reflections she of good. Your color is excellent, and they believe, the most attractive Jew- they wished specially to favor, the kiss pansed to look with smiling curiosity your appetite leaves nothing to be de- elry store in the United States, and per- generally intimating some promotion baps in the world. Their specialties are fine Watches, achievement. Diamonds and other Precious Gems.

> JEWELERS, 141 Broadway, cor. Liberty St.,

> > NEW YORK.

"What on earth did he do it for er a moment, raising her eyes to the a man in love would do such a thing Department of the Fidelity Trust "Perhaps as five finger exercises, just to keep his sculptor hand in train- for you at the rate of three per Clean and Bright. In Decided Con-

But Miss Cunningham looked so surthe open air as soon as possible. She backed by a capital, surplus and evidence of that fastidious cleanliness she paused near him. His preoccu- the rate of three per cent. per for a certain well gnawed array of and upwards draws interest at of shelf to keep off the rain. I should annum. You will be surprised bones scattered over a little smooth and delighted at the easy way bench above a creek channel. From thinking of you. I wanted to see you. I hope you are not too angry. You FIDELITY TRUST CO. "It must not happen again, not even when the tide is coming in, and no mat-

Prudential Building. NEWARK, N. J.

on the door, and when he asked who Cor. Fremont Street & Austin Place ing. "O Peasant, I beg the loan of thy lan-BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

"Nay, not that. I am a thief and and bolidays, from 2 to 6, and you may leave it outside the door as | from 7 to 9.30 P. M.

Subscription to Circulating De-

ondly, the Ass and the Goat are stabled

gers object to tipping on principle; but,

426 Bloomfield Ave., near Grange S

All interfering, overs thing, and lame done, thereupon dived into their pock. horses shed In the most scientific manner and he asked her:

50c. Teas

are selling the BEST

BONESSON ISPECIAL 3 4 01112 BEAUGUE AL SON T O of $5.00 and y early of Terr,

and Baking Powde

in is a chance th

robacc our goods a

we will all wyon!

ong, Congon Mixed, percent on and pay pan, Young Hyaon, all express charg-perfal, Ceylon, es, so that you may lood Oolongs Mixed thereagely test

25c. Coffee | gives all a chance to od Rossied correns, purchase our goods : 2. 18, 18 and 20c, a lb. less than cost,

Mr. Bunn, care of The Great American TeaCo.

81 488 VeneySt., P. O. Boy 289 New York

all particulars a prompt attention, ad'ress

Breakfast, quality of the goods ever cure anybody of anything?" "Why do you ask, my boy?" Tommy. A Way She Has.

It is every man's opinion that he would have been a great man had he

ARTHUR S. MARSELLIS, Sec y and Trees,

KISSING THE HAND.

The Practice Was Instituted by the Early Roman Rulers, The practice of kissing the hands was instituted by the early Roman rulers as a mark of subjection as much as one of respect, and under the first Cæsar the custom was kept up, but only for a time.

These worthies conceived the idea that the proper homage due to their exalted station called for less familiar modes of obeisance, so the privilege of kissing the emperor's hand was re-Benedict Bros, was established in Wall served as a special mark of condescen-Street in 1819 by Samuel W. Benedict, sion or distinction for officers of high

The present Benedicts removed to the placed on the emperors themselves. this sea air too! But they would reap Cunningham as her friend attacked corner of Cortlandt Street in 1863. who, if they wished to confer signal or personal satisfaction for some Roman fathers considered the prac-

NEWARK:

THE LARGEST AND MOST PERFECTLY EQUIPPED

Mail Order Service

PRESENTING UNF - UALED SHOPPING FACILITIES

A thoroughly experienced staff of buyers in this department will

Try our system, and you will not only save money, but have the

STOVES, RANGES, FURNACES.

New Stock, Latest Designs, and Improved Patterns

THOMAS F. COGAN.

FIRST-CLASS PLUMBER AND STEAM FITTER,

577 BLOOMFIELD AVENUE, BLOOMFIELD, N. J.

ESSEX HOTEL BLOCK

BEPAIRING ATTENDED TO PROMPTLY. ELECTRIC BELL WORK.

GEORGE HUMMEL

Dealer in the Very Best Grades of

Well Seasoned WOOD, Sawed or Split.

YARD AND OFFICE:

The Osborne & Marsellis Co.,

Lumber and Masons' Materials.

Broken and Building Stone,

FOR THOUSANDS OF OUT-OF-TOWN PATRONS.

tice of kissing of so delicate a nature that they never kissed their wives in the presence of their daughters. Then, too, only the nearest relatives were allowed to kiss their kindred of the gentler sex on the mouth, for in those days, as now, kissing was not a mere arbitrary sign, but it was the spontaneous language of the affections, especially that of love.

Under the Romans if a lover kissed his betrothed before marriage she inherited half of his worldly goods in the event of his death before the marriage ceremony, and if she died her heritage descended to her nearest relatives,

A PANTHER'S DEN.

trast to the Popular Idea. Your interests and the inter- the newly abandoned lair of a cougar the animal. This retreat was not at all the typical "panther's den" of tradi-Two dollars is enough to be- tion, but a bush grown harborage unthis boneyard there was a very traceable path leading through grass and make selections for you, and satisfaction is guaranteed or money will be brush to the retreat where the dam | refunded. We prepay mail or express charges to any part of the state had housed her young. The evidence on all paid purchases, and on C. O. D.'s for amounts aggregating here told plainly of the cougar's long $5.00 or more. immunity from annoyance and attack and of a thoroughly cleanly habit of additional advantage of assortments not equaled in Newark, or surof feasting about the lair. The dam passed anywhere in the land. Samples sent post paid to any address had carried her kill to the creek beach apon the receipt of postal card. in every instance, and the children had been called to the dining room. As bones which would have been crunched or eaten by grown animals had L. BAMBERGER & CO. NEWARK ed or eaten by grown animals had been perfectly cleaned by the kits I was able to judge of their summer's diet. This had consisted mostly of

nnor game, rabbits, marmots, grous

and the like, with an occasional small deer. At least one whole family of badgers, old and young, had been served, pussy having probably lain for them at their hole until they were all in.-Franklin Welles Calkins in Out-The Horse is Useful Even if Dead. The whale can be put to a great number of uses when dead, as can also the horse, the various parts of Open daily, except Sundays which are utilized as follows: Hair of mane and tail for harreloth, stuffing mattresses and making bags for crushing seed in oil milis, etc.; hide and skin tanned for leather for covering tables, etc.; tendons used for glue and gelatin; flesh for food fer dogs, poultry and man; fat used for lamps, etc.; intestines used for covering sausages, making gut strings, etc.; heart and tongue for food; hoofs for gelatin, prussiate, fancy snuffboxes, etc.; bones for knife handles, phosphorus, superphosphate of lime and manure; blood for manure and shoes for reuse or for old iron .-

Spare Moments.

In Suspense. "So you don't know whether you want to go to work or not?" "Well, suh," answered Mr. Erastus Pinkley, "I'd like de refusal ob de job a little while." "But I need somebody right away." "In dat case I'll have to let it go by I'ze jes' bought/a policy ticket, an' I'll hafter wait till aftub de drawin' to see. whether I'ze gwine to work at all or not."-Washington Star.

The Time Honored Spanker. Once my sister Floy was sent on an errand for some things for my mother. There was a traveling man there who was selling carpet spankers, and "Has your mother got one of these "No, sir," she replied, "What does she use?" he asked. "Her hand," was the prompt reply,-361 BROAD ST., BLOOMFIELD, N.J. Chicago Chronicle.

Made His Mark. "Hivens, Moike, th' eye av ye! Phat's the matther?" "I sthruck a man yisterday an' he gave me a receipt for it."-Ohio State

His Favorite Remedy. "Mamma," said Tommy, "does sugar Quarrymen and Road Builders. "I thought I'd like to catch it," said

Inquisitive Neighbor - I hear that your sister is engaged. Is that true? Small Boy-I dare say. She generally is.

BEST QUALITY LEHIGH, LACKAWANNA AND CANNEL COLL M. & B. and Long Distance would have been a great man had he would have deen a great man had he would have been a great man had had he would have been a great man had had he would have been a great man had had he would have been a great man had had had he would have been a great man had

HORACE S. OSBORNE, Pres.

ton Avenue.

Telephone on | Bloomfield 22.

Telephone No. 1-F.

Telephone No. 66-1-Bloomfield

VETERINARY SURGEON.

Office and Residence:

Office Hours 8 t . 9:30 A. M . 6 to 8 P. M.

Telephone No. 107-a-Boomdeld.

ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

Office: 800 BROAD STREET, NEWARE

DILCH & PILCH,

HOUSE HOLDUN

Copyright; 4501, by A. S. Richardson

By J. P. COUGHLAN

that branched out into several of the you do"adjoining states. His methods of brig. Before the sentence was finished andage were more novel than the un | Gentleman George had vanished. responsible for the adjective.

the opera house incog. itself back into its seats when a tall, sides. bearded, distinguished looking gentles | The managers of the theater at this

comedy, part of whose action will take | Gentleman George and his band. will be in no danger whatever, but him and read this letter, found on his should you become restive serious ac- doorstep that morning: cidents may happen.

possible for a single person to leave the and incidentally on the people of you theater until the finish of the little Opera House last night. The person callplease you will look toward the exits | an impersonator. I believe I know the you will see that they are carefully scoundred, and by the time you receive doors. At each door on the two tiers am over the regrettable occurrence of that included floor and balcony of the last evening. To show you that I was not the man who held up the Opera House I little theater stood a resolute looking inclose you my latest photograph, made ALLAGHER & KIRKPATRICK. man holding a brace of revolvers and in San Francisco. You can depend upon wearing a red cap. A tendency to it that the evildoers of last night will be scream on the part of the women was brought to justice. Yours in good faith, repressed by the hupressive hand of the man on the stage, who had by this time also donned a red cap. "No danger, friends," he called out in an annable voice. "Allow me to introduce myself: I am Gentleman George, and you know my reputation. If you are reasonable, you will not be touched -that is to say, you will only be touched mildly, for what valuables you may happen to have upon you. The good people behind the scenes are safe in the hands of my comrades. All communication with the outside is cut off. Every door is guarded. There is not a head in this house that is not covered with a Red Cap gun. As long as you sit still you are in no danger, but the moment you try to get gay or stow away any of your goods or put us to any trouble you will bear"-The ominous elipsis at the end of the

who shouted out from time to time or | ways said Come here! to their dogs ders to his men and to the audience and the expression has become a Jap-

"Please, sir, may I keep tids? It was my mother's," said a young girl in a "Certainly, my child, Jim, see that elders, often to their intense annoy-. the young lady keeps her brooch."

house. In some cases the requests cussing some household problem—some always on hand, were granted immediately, others as thing which an infant was not supcurtly refused and still others compro-mised. Some citizens were allowed to denly Cliff appeared on the scene and keep trinkets they valued by giving an in a moment was informing both of "I. O. U." for their value. This unex- the feminine members of the family pected turn to the proceedings gave the just what the facts were. affair a flavor of the auction room, and "Oh. Wisdom, when did you arrive?" in the excitement, coupled with peeps exclaimed Aunt Belle, thinking that Chemicals, into the heart secrets of others, the she might be able to "squelch" the women forgot in a great measure their | youngster. fright. This result was greatly con- "Just come dis minit," replied the tributed to by the good natured way in mite, not in the least abashed by the which the thieves did their robbing. sarcasm. And Aunt Belle gave it up "Now, my friends," said Gentleman as a hopeless case, - Duluth News-Trib-George after a pause, "everything une. seems to be moving serenely, and while the rest of the collection is being made, with your kind permission, I will endeavor to entertain you with a little song. Can you accompany me in "The Suwance River, professor?"

"Certainly, sir." "If you please, then."

brigand began the old song. The andience listened in amazement and as be fit finished the first verse taled the house with genuine applause. By the time the song was finished the collectors had completed their office Hours: Stown, M., 1.30 to 3, and 5 to 8 P. M work, and only the guards on the doors remained. The leader again raised his INR. F. G. SHAUL, hand for silence. "Ladles and gentlemen," he said, "I thank you for your kind attention. Our little cornedy has passed off successful-The Oaktree Opera House was un- ly, and now before we wind up let me usually crowded. The people of Oak | give you a few final instructions. Our | omes Hours | Vath 9 A. M.: 1,50 to 3 P. M. tree are a drama loving community, guards are still outside the various and the Watson-Duval Double Sur doors and shall remain there until we combination was giving "Hamlet." have had a good start. That will be, The manager estimated that there was let us say, fifteen minutes. Any one at least $500 in the house, his pressic who attempts to leave before that time S. C. HAMILTON, D. D. S., will be shot dead at the day of the way of summing up the value of the will be shot dead at the door, and you audience from the box office point of know I have a habit of keeping my view. There was a good deal more | word. To simplify matters I intend to | No. 32 Broad Street. Bloomfields N. J. than $500 in the house from the prace place this starm clock"-here he held tical financial view of Gentleman up an alarm clock which was banded George, known in the adjacent moun to him from the wings to the view of tains, where he made his headquar | the audience "here on this table. It ters, as the leader of the Red Caps. is set to go off at 11 o'clock. Don't DR. W. F. HARRISON. Gentleman George had a reputation leave your seats until you hear it. If originality of his sobriquet would lend | The people in the house looked at one you to believe; but, then, he was not, another wonderingly. No one dared to be the first to tempt fate by getting up Gentleman George visited Oaktree and leaving the theater. Yet each man occasionally, but a discreet population | there be neved that the threat was a | CHAS H. HALFPENNY refused to recognize him, and the au | "bluff," intended to give the robbers a thorities were conveniently unaware chance to get safely away. They were of his identity; hence it was quite in disinclined, however, to put their belief order, as with other personages, that to the test, and no one stirred. While he should attend the performance at matters were still in this indeterminate state a pi reing cry of "Fire!" The curtain had fallen on the second rang out throughout the house and Frederick & Puch act and the audience was for settling | was immediately taken up on several man in evening dress appeared before outcry rushed on the stage and shouted the curtain and made a sign to the au- words meant to be calming to the audidience, begging their attention. The ence, They succeeded in a measure in audience craned forward in their seats. allaying the panic which was begin-The man raised an impressive hand | ning to get under way, but many peo-"Ladies and gentlemen, I trust that I penings, rushed from the theater out HALSEY M. BARRETT, shall have your undivided attention. Into the street. Then it was discovered ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOB AT LAW, We are about this evening to vary the conclusively that there was no fire, but programme slightly and shall, with that the scare raised by the cry had your kind infulgence, offer a little added to the start already gained by -place in the body of the house. I think | By noon on the day following the it well to warn you beforehand that it | sheriff was ready to start for the CHARLES F. KOCHER. would be best for you to keep your | haunts of Gentleman George with a seats. If you obey this injunction, you strong posse, when the mayor sent for

Dear Mr Mayor-A dastardly outrage "Now let me add that it will be im- has been perpetrated on my good naccomedy. If -don't rise from your seats, ing himself Centleman George was only this myself and a few trusty comrades will be on his trail. The good citizens of Eyes were instantly turned to the Oaktree-cannot be more grieved than I > pertinent tone of the letter and thought Jos. D. GALLAGHER, J. BAYARD KIRKPATRICK. The sheriff did not like the cool, imthat, owing to his long immunity, Gentleman George was inclined to jest with the township. The mayor thought differently. It was, he said, a very T F. CAPEN, courteous note, and he could not see . that it in any way reflected on the town. Sides were taken, and the next election was fought out largely on the question of the good faith or otherwise of Gentleman George. Though the election went in favor of the mayor and the upholders of Gentleman DAVID P. LYALL, George, to this day it has not been determined whether or not it was that polished bandit who had held up the Opera House.

"Come Here!" In Japanese. A writer on children's games in last sentence had all its intended effect. Japan says: "Blind man's buff as "Now that we understand each oth- played in Japan is quite the same er," continued the speaker, "our cols as the game played by western chillectors will pass among you, and I dren, but if you play it with Jap- Music furnished for Weddings, Recep trust you will remember that their anese I may warn you not to say time is valuable and cannot be wasted Come here." in English to any one in disputes. In the meantime there is you may be trying to catch. It will 47 FAIRMOUNT AVENUE, no reason why the music should not be all right to say in Japanese 'Chotcontinue. If you please, Mr. Professor. to olde' (Come here a moment) or 'Olde nasal' (Condescend to come To the somewhat tremulous music here). The person spoken to will not of the piano three men moved sys 'code' of course if he or she can help tematically through the lower floor of himself or herself, but if you call out the theater, each one carrying slung in English Tome here," as I know a over his shoulder a large leather bag | foreigner did once, you may interrupt such as is carried by postinen, while the game, 'Come here' (in Japanes, three others similarly equipped went | character written ka mi) means for at the same time through the balcony. | eign dog. Inu is the word for native "Ladies may keep their wedding dog, but the first foreigners in Yokorings," caffed out the chief robber, hama, Americans and English folk, al-

Sarensm That Failed. she held up a small brooch in her hand for Gentleman George to see.

years old-yet he insists upon intruding his presence and advice upon his the best men I have the Art and Literature. Friend-Have you sold that historic-1 painting of yours yet? Artist-No, but I've hired a fellow to write a historical novel dealing with the same period. If that makes a hit,

I can easily dispose of the picture.-

PHYSICIAN AND SUBGEON

No 393 Franklin Street, opp. Washing-"A thing about Americans which has surprised me more than anything else," said a German artist who has been visiting in New York city for six months past, "is that with all your patriotism PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

of your own country, to say nothing of the rest of the world." No. 70 Washington St., Bloomfield, N. J There were several Americans in the circle, and they looked rather surknew that they were weak in geography and that here was a challenge which would have to pass.

Not so a bright young woman of twenty, who rushed into the breach with her head in the air. "We do know the geography of our country," she said decidedly. "Of course we do. Every child learns it in of the capitals of some of your states, for instance?" "Certainly. I'll be glad to answer." 329 Broad Street. Bioomfield, N. J. And she nodded confidently at the young American man who was already beginning to fear for her. "What is the capital of Massachufrom the girl. "And of North Carolina?" That seemed to puzzle her a little, and it was a full minute before she an Besidence, Lawrence street Bronnfield swered "Charleston!"

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

It is safer to prune too little than too

Gooseberries and currants are two easily grown fruits, and there is sel-

The quality and size of fruit on old

The cause of moss appearing on the stems of apple and other fruit trees is wet, cold, undrained land or an exces-

In saving garden seed gather when

A good mulch around fruit trees helps to keep down weeds, keeps the

The time of setting out of fruit trees

is of far less importance than to see that the right varieties are selected,

the soil prepared and transplanting

Candles.

"I thought candles went with stage-coaches, but a good many people must use them yet," said a shopper who pointed to a collection of candlesticks,

all of the utility sort, arrayed in a house furnishing department. There were big and little, ornamental and plain, practical and unpractical ones.

Some had broad trays, and others had none at all, and some had devices for lifting the candle, while others were made with deep necks. There still remain people who cling to the traditions of their ancestors and will have none of the modern lighting inventions for their sleeping rooms. Certain women prefer a light in their bedrooms until they are asleep, and for this purpose a candle is just the thing, for it will put itself out at the time proportioned by

Saw No Reason For Swearing.

General Grant was asked why be ever swore! He replied: "Well, when a boy I had an aversion to swearing.

It seemed useless, in unnecessary habit, and besides I saw that swearing usually aroused a man's anger. I early had a desire to have complete command of myself. I noticed when a man got angry his opponent always got the better of him. On that account also I determined to refrain from Home Life In England and America.

The decay of the home life is to be attributed partially to the influence on society of the invasion of Americans.

In the United States home life is almost unknown. The meaning of the word "home," as understood to Britishers, is a mystery to Yankees. To a von your home life, and I certainly agree with some of your correspondents that it would be disastrous for your country to lose the elevating and refining influences of the home.-An-

To emprove the Hora

glo-American in London Mail.

its length.- New York Tribune.

soil loose, moist and porous at all times,

with little labor of cultivation,

bushes is much improved by thinning

of the fruit or severe pruning.

The foreigner smiled, but made no effort to correct her. "What is the Beary G. Pich. highest mountain in the United States?" he asked. "It's not fair to ask about mountains," she protested. "You said I Attorneys and Counsellors at Law. didn't know the capitals." 22 CLINTON STREET, NEWARE, N. J. "The expital of Illinois is?"

setts?" was his first question.

Residence of F. B. Pinin, 75 Waterssing Avenue. "Chi-Springfield, I mean." "Of Montana?" For the life of her she could not think of a town in Montana. "It's been an age since I studied geography."

transplanting.

dom an oversupply.

sively humid climate.

well done.

matured will shell first.

she explained "Your answers were better than the Office, 750 Broad St., Newark. average," said the man. "You got one Residence, Elm St., Bloomfield, right out of four. As I said, American geography surprises me."-New York

COUNSELLOR AT LAW IBLOOM FIELDA NEW . BK : Prudential building. 285 Bloomfield avenue.

WM. DOUGLAS MOORE, Attorney and Counsellor at Law. New York City. 149 Broadway, Residence, 12 Austin Place, Bloomfield, N. J.

LAW OFFICES, 165 Broad Street, Newark, N. J. Besidence of J. D. Gallagher, Bidgewood Ave.,

Exchange Building. 45 Olinton Street, Newark. Residence: 376 Franklin Street, Bloomfield.

PIANO-TUNER, Bloomfield, N. J 8 Monroe Place, LOCK BOX 144.

TRACHER OF VIOLIN AND PIANO. Newark, N. J.

556 Bloomfield Ave.,

Parlor and Chamber Suits, Bureaus, &c. reasons for swearing. All were against Presently requests of various kinds It was only a few days ago that his Also.Oli Cloth, Carpet Lining, Matbegan to come from all parts of the mother and his Aunt Belle were dis- ting. Mattresses and Spring Beds Upholstering and Repairing done with neatness.

in Printing this Paper IS MANUFACTURED BY

mals.-Atchison Globe. and it is said that the tips of his middle fingers extended below his knees.

IGNORANT OF GEOGRAPHY.

How a German Put Posers to an American Girl.

NEW LINE OF TRUNKS. you know so little about the geography | Coolers, Summer Lap Robes and Sheets, and Driving Gloves Trunks and Satchels always in Stock.

Rubber and Oiled Goods. prised. None of the men spoke. They | Trunk Repairing a Specialty. Trunks in need of Repairs called for and delivered in any part of Bloomfield or Gien Bidge free of charge. JOHN N. DELHAGEN,

10 Broad Street, "Might I ask you a question or two?" The Standard Livery and Boarding Stables, the foreigner said quietly. "The names

T. H. DECKER, Proprietor, No. 600 BLOOMFIELD AVENUE.

Perfect Family Horses. Large stock of good norses. Gentlemen's and ladies' driving horses. "Boston" was the prompt answer Brand New Coaches, Carriages, and Buggies of Latest and most approved styles. First-class Equipment in Every Respect. If you have occasion to use a livery of any gind for any purpose, or a horse to board, furniture or baggage to move, before going elsewhere visit and examine that facilities and accommodations of the Standard Livery and Boarding Stables.

FURNITURE STORED.

Courteous Attention and Satisfaction Guaranteed. Telephone No. 72.

There are Patents, and there are JOHN G. KEYLER'S SONS, PATENTS WHICH PROTECT

We procure you the last kind un Undertakers less you order otherwise.

Our preliminary searches ($5) are very and Embalmers. trustworthy, and free advice as to patent ability goes with them. Moist earth and a cloudy day for 556 Bloomfield Ave., Bloomfield, M. J.

Everything pertaining to the Business

General Furnishing

TELEPHONE CALL NO. 35.

Cor, Broad & Market Sts.,

Telephone 2652. NEWARK, N. J.

ripe. Do not allow it to shell off. The first matured is the best, and the first

Most every day some NEWCOMER "finds out" we have large buildings with a 5-acre floor space, carrying the largest furniture and carpet stock in all this State! NOWHERE can you do as much with your cash, NOWHERE get the "accommodation" WE give! One visit convinces!

Artistic white enameled for the $4.00 line Reed Rockers built for beds, brass scroll effectof golden oak tables. comfort, usually $3.50

Velour couches-deep tufted, best prings Regularly $9.00 Wickless "Blue Flame" Oil Stoves-new line just in-every size.

see them operated for visitors. REFRIGERATORS $4.98 UP. ICE CHESTS $3.49 UP. Lowest priced line in town. Every make guaranteed-dozens of new models all sizes, hard and soft wood.

CARPETS at Cut Prices Again. certain extent we have always envied

$1.25 Velvets, yard. 1.00 Velvets, yard

1.00 Brussels, yard. .75 Brussels, yard. 1.40 Extra Axminster, yard ... 1.25 Axminster, yard

1.15 Moquettes, yard. Also Ingrains, Three-Ply Mattings, Lineleums, Olic'oths,

If some owners of horses would spend more for feed and less for whips, they would have more spirited ani-MARKET ST., NEWARK, N. J. Near Plane St., West of Broad St. Edward I, was 6 feet 2 inches high, PAYMENTS

$4.98

For Golden

Oak Chiffon-

iers, ordinarily $7.00.

All trolleys frangler to our down

www.fultonhistory.com